Tranquil Trails

This collection embodies cultivating a Culture of Care through its homage to cultural traditions and the artistry of handmade craftsmanship. While capturing an essence of care and love in every detail, stitch, and weave, the patterns inspire a deeper appreciation for the soulful resonance found in every artisanal motif.

“Care. We tend to forget to care about people's culture, especially in today's high tension society. Not only that, we live in a divided world, with different traditions. But what if we combine what these beautiful cultures have to offer? What if we will use Durkan's Definity technology to emphasize the history behind the culture? Art Pieces made of blended patterns, so that we can see the true beauty of a united world. And today I decided to harness that beauty in the 'Tranquil Trails' collection.”
