FLAT-WOVEN WOOL STYLES

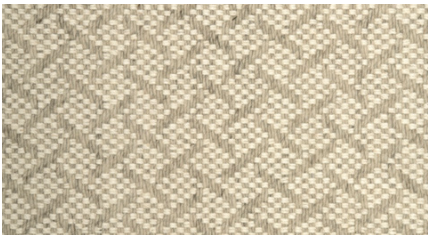

With Karastan Black Label, modernity seamlessly blends with comfort through our handwoven flatweave styles. Using tried and true techniques passed down through generations, we craft our quality rugs with a simplicity that belies their intricate patterns.

Our flatweaves are woven without knots, combining vertical and horizontal fibers to create a seamless piece. The result is a beautiful array of calming neutrals and intricate patterns that elevate any space.
