Assembled Threads

Threadline Contour Drift Composite Ground

Assembled Threads

Assembled Threads celebrates the art of composition—how individual elements join to form something greater. Drawing inspiration from the tactile precision of wood joinery and the natural variation of hand-set stone, this carpet tile collection translates the language of assembly into a modern textile surface.

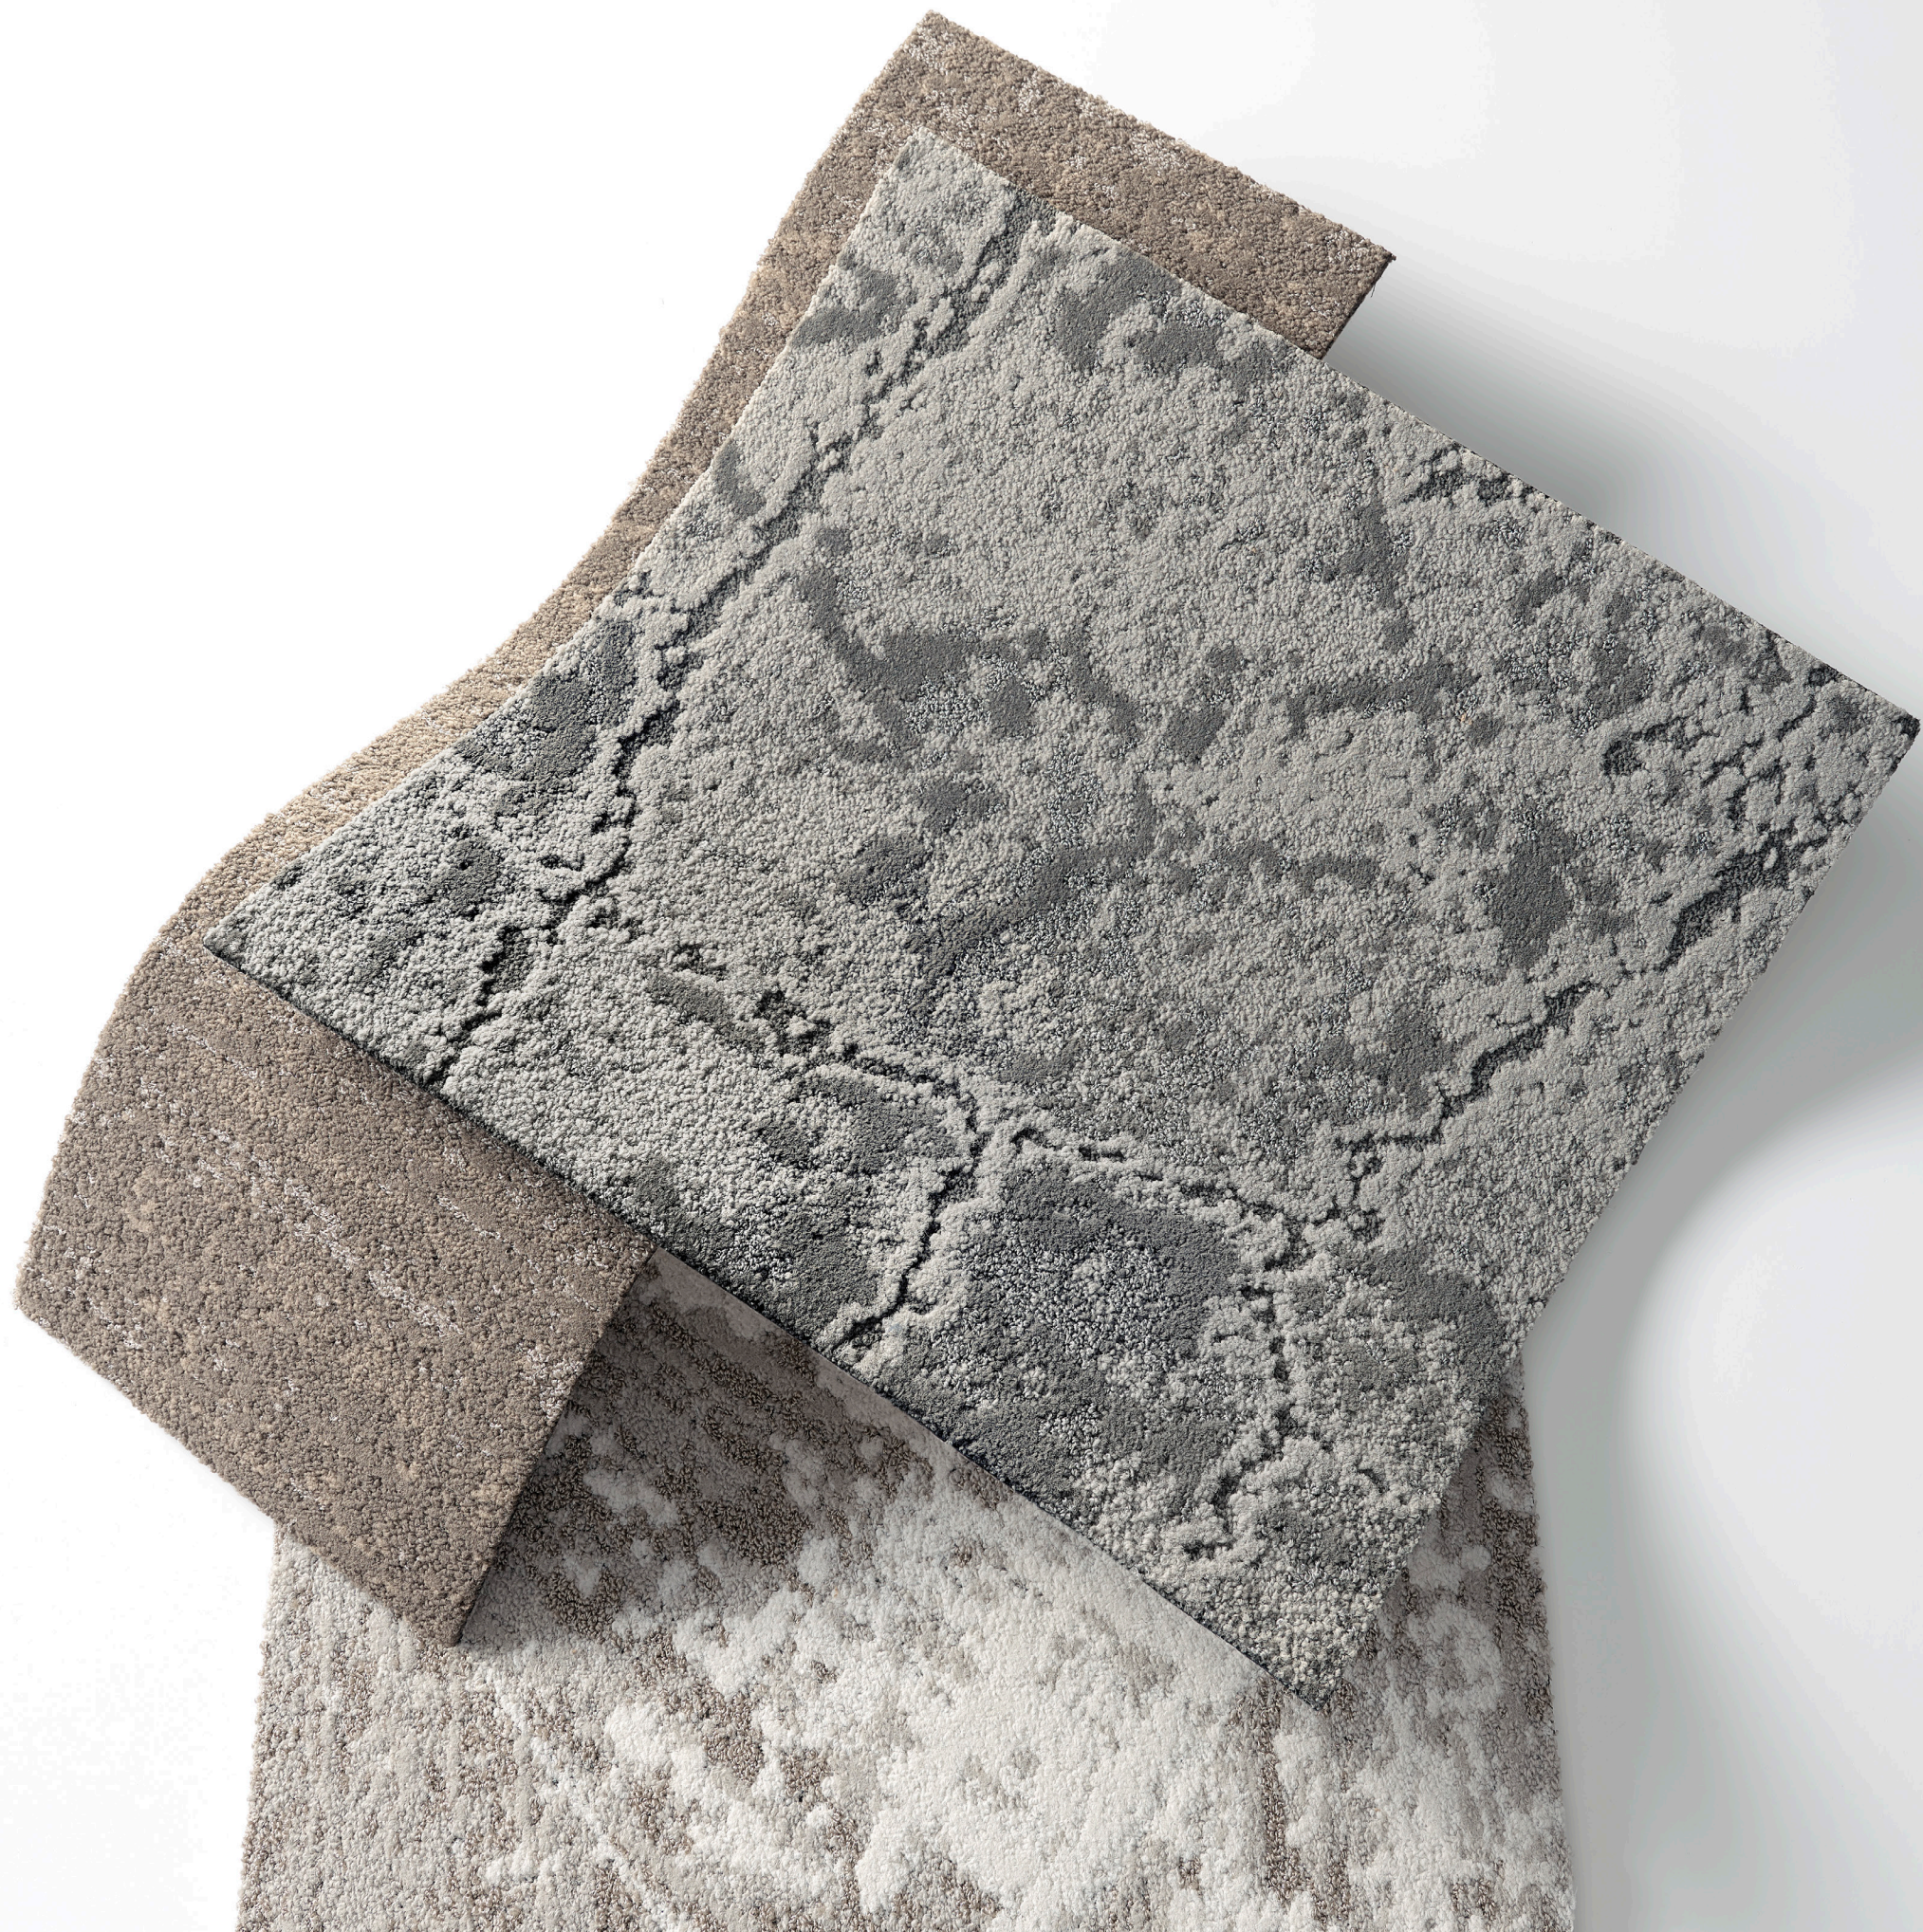

Assembled Threads is designed to mesh beautifully with the Assembled Woods and Assembled Travertine LVT collections. These products have coordinating palettes and share the same thickness, allowing for seamless transitions between the soft surface and hard surface styles.

Used individually or combined in creative layouts, Assembled Threads capture the rhythm of construction and reconstruction, from the linear grains of wood to the fractured geometry of stone, rendered through layered texture and tonal nuance. The result is a grounded, architectural aesthetic that balances order and irregularity, precision and imperfection, evoking the human core of craft.

Colorways

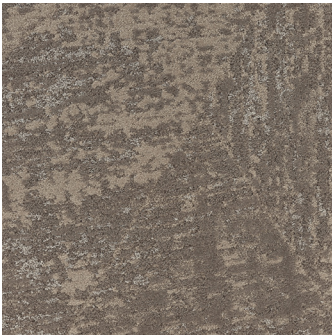

Threadline brings an abstract sense of soft, varied wood grains, joined at freeform angles across the floor. Its 24”x 24” tile format and 8 neutral colorways are shared by Contour Drift, an interpretation of timeworn stone surfaces with an organic, open pattern.

Composite Ground in a 12” x 36” plank format provides a quiet, textural coordinate that bridges the two tile patterns. The plank style features 16 colorways, offering two coordinating tones for each of the tile colorways.
