Silvius National Forest showcases an impressive spectrum of hues, complemented by a variety of cut lengths that enhance visual appeal and mirror the authenticity of natural hardwood floors. Prioritizing environmental responsibility and indoor air quality, this engineered wood collection is PVC-free and fully compliant with the Lacey Act, ensuring the use of healthy, sustainable materials.

RENEWABLE MATERIALS
Mohawk Group's Engineered Hardwood is crafted from renewable wood materials, enhancing environmental sustainability. These planet-friendly products are also recoverable at the end of their useful life, contributing to a better and healthier planet.

FLOORSCORE
Engineered hardwood floors that are FloorScore Certified ensure they meet strict indoor air quality standards, reducing harmful volatile organic compounds (VOCs) emissions. This certification provides assurance of a healthier and safer indoor environment, making it a crucial consideration for commercial spaces.

LACEY ACT COMPLIANT
Products that are compliant with the Lacey Act certify that hardwood is legally sourced, helping to prevent illegal logging and promoting sustainable forest management. This compliance not only protects global forests but also supports ethical trade practices.

TRULY AUTHENTIC VISUALS
Crafted from natural hardwood veneers, Mohawk Group's engineered hardwood combines the beauty of hardwood with our innovative engineering for enhanced performance. Each Silvius floor is a unique, custom piece of art, showcasing distinctive color variations, grain patterns, and the distinguished character of a natural masterpiece that never repeats itself.
