

Restorative Insights Collection

FOR SENIOR LIVING ENVIRONMENTS

Restorative Insights

Broadloom carpet plays a special role in an age-inclusive community, as it brings a sense of warmth and comfort to a space, grounding our feet with a sense of belonging. The Restorative Insights collection offers three styles of textural patterns that were inspired by knit stitches, and how these can represent community and bring people together in communal spaces. This common thread of stitched yarn is a rich metaphor for a sense of kinship that we humans have with each other and a sense of place.

Collective Balance 637 Garden Path

Collective Balance 737 Natural Linen

Collective Structure 957 Mysterious

Collective Structure 449 Shadows

Collective Harmony 939 Silver Lining

Mohawk Group

Our broadloom can be restorative, as it reconnects people with a shared purpose to tell stories, honor shared space, and hold community values close.

Explore The Full Collection

Collective Harmony 545 Winter Solstice